

YouGov / National Grammar School Association Survey Results

Sample Size: 1269 London Adults
Fieldwork: 20th - 25th June 2013

	Voting intention				2010 Vote			Gender		Age				Social grade		Ethnicity		Children under 18
	Total	Con	Lab	Lib Dem	UKIP	Con	Lab	Lib Dem	Male	Female	18-24	25-39	40-59	60+	ABC1	C2DE	White	Other	No	Yes
Weighted Sample	1269	X	X	X	X	364	382	227	626	643	152	454	407	255	749	520	888	362	843	377
Unweighted Sample	1269	272	503	65	105	339	423	220	583	686	158	364	462	285	796	473	963	276	899	322
	%	%	%	%	%	%	%	%	%	%	%	%	%	%	%	%	%	%	%	%	%

Grammar schools are state secondary schools that are allowed by law to select their pupils on the grounds of high academic ability. Pupils normally sit a test at the age of 11 in order to qualify for a place.

Generally speaking, do you support or oppose the keeping of current Grammar Schools?

Support	65	80	58	72	81	79	62	64	64	66	58	62	64	76	68	60	66	62	69	61
Oppose	17	8	24	13	14	6	22	19	17	16	20	16	17	15	17	16	18	14	16	20
Don't know	18	12	18	15	6	14	16	17	19	18	22	22	19	8	15	23	16	23	16	19

And would you support or oppose the creation of new Grammar Schools in areas that do not currently have any?

Support	60	75	54	61	77	72	57	59	61	60	53	58	60	70	64	55	60	61	61	61
Oppose	18	7	27	21	13	8	26	19	19	16	23	17	16	17	18	17	20	12	18	19
Don't know	22	18	20	19	10	20	18	22	20	24	24	25	24	13	19	27	20	27	21	20