Thinking about whether or not Britain can afford to help other European countries, which of the statements below best reflects your view?

Britain's economy is reliant upon our exports to other countries and a financial collapse abroad could make our problems even worse - it is in Britain's interests to try and help the Eurozone avoid a crisis	22	22	28	28	20	28	25	30	15	27	22	24	19	28	14	27	22	19	22	26
