Next week the G8 summit between the world's eight wealthiest countries is being held in Northern Ireland.

Generally speaking do you think the G8 summit is a good or bad thing?

The G8 is a good thing - allowing the leaders of powerful countries like Britain, the USA, Russia, Japan, and Germany to build trust with each other and discuss the major issues facing the world	41	59	35	59	35	51	34	47	44	38	52	38	38	43	48	31	45	44	42	38	27	39	41

Previous G8 summits have attracted widespread protests which have sometimes led to violence, which of the following best represents your view?

The police should do all they can to allow people the freedom to protest and express their views outside the summit, even if there is some risk of violence	38	30	46	49	29	25	46	44	42	34	46	37	39	33	40	35	38	40	35	40	33	39	37

One issue on the agenda at this week's G8 summit will be tax havens, with hopes that new rules on transparency can be agreed to stop international companies hiding profits in tax havens to avoid paying taxes.

Which of the following statements best reflects your view?

Rules on tax havens should only be changed when all countries agree, otherwise small countries that do the right thing could damage their economies while the problem just moves elsewhere	22	31	17	23	26	29	18	19	24	20	26	21	23	19	26	16	19	23	25	21	16	23	21
Countries regarded as tax havens should change their rules now, whether or not other countries do the same. Select committees in the House of Commons are committees of backbench MPs that examine and scrutinise government departments. Some committees look after the running of the Commons, while others examine each government department.

Thinking about the MPs who serve on the committees...

Do you think MPs who have financial interests in a policy area (such as directorships or shares in companies that work in that field) should be allowed to CHAIR that committee?

Should - MPs involved with companies who work in an area will be more knowledgeable about it and have useful insight to offer	7	12	6	6	3	9	6	4	8	5	9	9	7	3	8	4	8	7	6	8	3	11	5

Some people have called for Internet Service Providers to offer a service that filters internet sites and automatically blocks pornographic sites from people's home internet service.

Some people think that customers should have to choose to have their internet service filtered (an opt-in service), other people think that internet services should all be filtered unless customers ask for their service to be unfiltered (an opt-out service). Do you think internet filters should be opt-in or opt-out?
